

Instructor Glenn Roper

Glenn is currently the Head Varsity Softball Coach at Smithtown High School East. He has been the Head Coach since 2006. In 2009, he was named League 3 Coach of the Year. In 2004, Glenn was a volunteer assistant coach for the Smithtown Varsity Baseball Team, which won the Suffolk County Championship. Coach Roper also coached the Long Island Reds 16u baseball team that finished third in the Triple Crown World Series in Colorado. That team produced five division 1 players and two professional players that made it to the AAA.